

Modern Slavery statement 2019

Who we are and what we do

Mediwin PPIP Ltd is a UK based pharmaceutical wholesaler, we repackage, import and distribute pharmaceutical products throughout the whole of the UK and across Europe. We specialise in high quality parallel importation products. The distribution of medicines throughout Europe and the UK is strictly regulated and monitored to ensure patient safety at all times. Mediwin PPIP Ltd is licensed and regulated by the Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency (MHRA). Our customers and suppliers in the UK and the EU are authorised by the MHRA or their relevant national health authorities to buy and sell pharmaceutical products, and Mediwin PPIP Ltd carries out regular checks on these licences to guarantee compliance.

The Modern Slavery Act 2015

Commercial organisations or businesses that supply goods or services in the UK and have an annual turnover of £36 million or more are required to publish a statement on slavery and human trafficking each financial year. Our statement sets out the steps that Mediwin PPIP Ltd are taking and continue to take to safeguard that modern slavery or human trafficking is not taking place within our business or anywhere within our supply chain. Modern slavery includes but is not limited to human trafficking and any kind of forced labour.

Our policies

Mediwin PPIP Limited has a modern slavery procedure to increase awareness in the business in order to identify and tackle modern slavery at work and in our supply chains. We operate a zero tolerance attitude towards any form of modern slavery and will not tolerate or allow it in any part of the business or in our supply chain. We use and adhere to many internal policies to assist us in our fight against modern slavery and these include our recruitment policy. As well as assessing external suppliers to ensure they have never been convicted of offenses including those related to modern slavery.
